

Dragons defence man Tom Evans has been invited to attend trails for Great Britain's under 18's squad.

Tom has worked his way up through the ranks of Cardiff Junior Ice Hockey Club over the years and currently plays under 18's and ENL.

He has also, on many occasions been selected into South West Conference teams and Team England squads but now he has the fantastic opportunity to represent his country in the IIHF under 18's World Championships along with club team mates Chris Jones and Ben Davies who have also been invited to the trials.

Tom was extremely chuffed to receive the invite and will, as always work hard to ensure a place in the GB squad.

Cardiff Junior Ice Hockey Club wishes Tom, Chris and Ben all the best and good luck in the trails which will take place between September and October 08.
